MEXICO BECOMING MORE QUIET General Inclination to Recognize

New Regime Being Manifested -Carranga Revolt is Spreading.

MEXICO CITY, March 4.-Major Cardenas, who was in charge of the escort Francisco Madero and Jose Pino Buarez on the day they were killed, was today promoted from the rural guard to the same rank in the regular army.

A general inclination to recognize General Huerta's administration is being manifested by the rebels in all parts of the republic. Nearly all the rebel leaders have now fallen in line, asking either that their men be incorporated in the regular army or mustered out.

Many of the rebels, however, display sensitiveness in regard to the amnesty bill to be discussed by the chamber of deputies tomorrow, which, they say, wrongly implies their defeat.

ARRIVE IN AUGUSTA TODAY

Miss Helen Taft Weeps Gently as Farewells Are Said at Station and Eyes of Others Are Not Dry.

WASHINGTON, March t-William H. Taft, public servant since he was 21, said his farewell to public life today and became a citizen of the republic that he served over the seas and throughout the world for so many years. He has almost forgotten when he enlisted. His good-bye was a smile, a handshake for the members of his cabinet, courtly bow to the women friends who braved the inauguration discomforts to bid him and Mrs. Taft 'godspeed" in the union station; a wave of the hand and another smile for the people who stood in the trainshed and watched his train pull slowly out for the

The last that Washington saw of the wenty-sixth president was the dim outine of a big, smiling figure in a frock out, with hair a little awry, standing on the rear platform of a private car as it was swallowed in the curling smoke of the tunnel that leads under the city to Dixie. His last glimpse of the city where four years ago he became chief executive and today a private citizen by the pe ple's will, was from the platform of his car across the broad Potomac to where the Washington monument lifted its gray, pointed peak to the gray sky.

Will Take Vacation in Georgia Tomorrow he expects to be in Georgia to rest and play as the guest of the city of Augusta for three weeks. On March 27 he plans to go north again to New Haven to settle down under the elms of essor of law. He left with no betterness n his heart, he told friends, but only the opportunity to serve.
